MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. Richard J. Kerr
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency

SUBJECT: Intelligence Support to the Arms Control Ratification Process

Dick:

I appreciate your providing us the guidelines proposed for the Intelligence Community to use in dealing with the Congress on the intelligence-related aspects of the CFE and START treaties. They seem to provide a sound basis on which to proceed. Such coordination on intelligence matters should contribute to a positive interaction with the Congress on the treaties and support the Administration's broader interagency effort under the leadership of Secretary Baker to achieve successful ratification.

As for attendance at Committee hearings and staff briefings, we have been assured by CIA's Office of Congressional Affairs that the guidelines do not alter in any respect the agreement worked out last summer between the Department and CIA concerning the attendance at sessions by observers from INR and the Bureau of Legislative Affairs when CIA is testifying and briefing. The Department is satisfied by the way this arrangement worked during the recent series of SSCI staff briefings on CFE.

We look forward to cooperating with you in implementing the guidelines and to working closely together in the ratification process.

Douglas P. Mulholland
